The sepects at the ringside were divided in their opinion. Many of them grew too enthusiastic because White made such a wonderful showing in the least two rounds, but Weish's fast boxing and cleverness in the early rounds could hardly be off-set by White's whirlwind finish, and the only just decision is a draw.

White started well in the opening round. Heing a rushing fight, it took The experts at the ringside were the battle.

But in the fifth Gibbons knocked him down for a nine-second count with a right on the side of the head, and again swan seconds before the bell with a graing left Book. This time Donovan fell as much through being dazed as from the final blow. He rose fairly strong each time. It was apparent then that Gibbons could links the battle when he wanted to as he did in the next round.

The Gibbons-Donovan fight went on early, Kid Lewis and Bhoom going on last. The Englishman weighed 155 stripped and Hloom 137 in his togs. Lewis won with plenty to spare, but he didn't show anything that might possibly justify the advance notices, which called him "another Jem Driscoll." Le Gore's first bid for fame came injuries and that all the men came other side with double and tripe passes and with but few fumbles is due simply to Le Gore's wonderful handling of the ball.

LE GORE USED TO BE A STAR BASKETBALL PLAYER.

Before he took up football the Eli fullback was a basketball star at Merfullback was a basketball star at mercarsburg. He learned the trick of scooping the ball over the ground or snatching it out of the air.
